

Regulations for Acceptance of International Study, Distance Students

No international studies will be permitted without written approval from the Department prior to the application process. A change to international studies will also not be approved after a student's acceptance to the program.

Approval will require determination by the Department, that adequate and qualified clinical supervision can be found, and that online communication with the campus is possible.