

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

Twelve semester units of basic coursework including CD 405 (phonetics), CD 410 (hearing science), CD 415 (speech and language development), CD 442 (speech science) or the equivalent.

Three semester units in diagnostic methods. Coursework may include tests and measurements, standardized and non-standardized evaluation procedures or theory and practice in assessment of individuals and policies in governing administration and interpretation of tests or CD 469A.

Nine semester units of coursework in the management of communicative disorders
Including:

- > Phonology and articulation disorders or CD 451
- > Language disorders or CD 462
- > Coursework related to voice, fluency, cleft palate, cerebral palsy, motor speech disorders or multicultural populations taken within the communication disorders department or CD 450

Six semester units of courses in basic audiometry and auditory habilitation such as CD 445, CD 446 or the equivalent.